AN INVITATION TO JOIN

The National Association of Fire Investigators, International was organized in 1961. Its primary purposes are to increase the knowledge and improve the skills of persons engaged in the investigation and analysis of fires, explosions, and arson, or in the litigation, which ensues from such investigations.

TRAINING PROGRAMS

The National Association of Fire Investigators, International sponsors international and regional training programs on fire, arson, and explosion investigation in order to provide an opportunity for the many persons interested in this field to study and learn together. Internationally recognized authorities present illustrated lectures on fire and explosion investigation. Both basic and advanced lectures are offered at these training programs. In addition to the main program, special pre-program one-day seminars, such as computer fire modeling, are offered.

THE NATIONAL FIRE INVESTIGATOR

NAFI periodically publishes its Journal, The National Fire Investigator. The National Fire Investigator reports current trends in the fire and explosion investigation profession; news of members; technical, scientific, and practical articles on various aspects of the investigation of fires and explosions; reports on state and federal legislation; and other news of interest to its members.

THE NATIONAL CERTIFICATION BOARD

NAFI has originated and implemented The National Fire and Explosion Certification Program and Registry. This program recognizes the knowledge, training, experience and expertise of qualified investigators and instructors. Certification is achieved by passing a comprehensive examination, after a review of qualifications by the National Certification Board, a committee of internationally recognized experts. NAFI currently offers National Certification Programs for individual fire and explosion investigators; fire investigation instructors; and vehicle fire investigators.

The NAFI Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator; Certified Fire Investigation Instructor; and Certified Vehicle Fire Investigator enjoy international acceptance and recognition of their expertise.
