- Hold the CFEI designation
- Minimum of 15 years of full time investigation experience as a CFEI

Application package:

1. Complete application and attach current CV or Resume.
2. Submit a Professional Review Report
3. 3 Letters of Recommendation from other Fire Investigation professionals.
4. Application fee of $175 USD
5. Fire investigation related paper. Research must be within the previous 3 years.
 - a. Submission of abstract
 - b. Approval of abstract by NAFI/IAFI Board of Governors
 - c. Submission of final paper article. Paper requirements will be sent upon abstract acceptance.

“Professional Review Report”:

Professional Review is the final process by which a judgment for F-IAFI is made. This process allows the evaluator insight into how the applicant applies the knowledge and skills they have acquired through NFPA 921 based fire investigations.

Format and Submission Details

- 3 detailed summarized investigations showing (with citations) on how the principals of NFPA 921 were used in the investigation. It is not necessary to provide every detail, provide enough to show that the principals of NFPA 921 were used and how they were used in the investigation. It is your duty to show evidence that your investigation meets and follows NFPA 921, the evaluator will not make any assumptions as to your reasoning.
- The report should be typed or printed on standard letter sized paper, single-sided only and no more than 15 pages long.
- Must include some supporting documentation: photos, diagrams, graphs, etc. Do not send originals, as they will not be returned to you.
- The report should be written in the first person singular. The evaluators are interested in what you have done and what your role was in the investigation.
- The report must be your own work and reflect investigations that you had a significant role in.
- Case specific details should be redacted or altered to preserve the anonymity of your clients but you are encouraged to still gain permission from employer and/or client.
